Program Overview

INDEPENDENT RESEARCH PROGRAM

(COMMENCE DATE: WHENEVER CANDIDATE IS READY)

All Hill-City University Post-Graduate degree program is a research independence program which you can run from your home or office online or distance program. It is not classroom program and you don't need to come to lectures but to independently with your supervisor guide, carry out research in all the courses simulations given to you and write thesis in all not less than ten (10) chapters. Our program is Built-in flexibility allows students in both programs to complete their courses at their own pace relative to their professional, family, and other commitments. This means students can study when and where their schedule permits. The time required to complete the degree is flexible and most students enroll in only one or two courses per semester while working full time. Therefore, most students achieve their masters in minimum one year to one and half (1-1/2) and maximum two years.
